Dear SWATCH Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the COLLECTION DESIGNER 100% position at Swatch because I believe that my skills and experience make me the right professional for this role.

Being very much confident that I can be the solution you search for, I highlight the following reasons below:

I am always aware and trying up-to-date technologies, trends, techniques and medias. Experimentation and curiosity is a natural part of my creativity.

Great logical abilities to present and explain creative concepts while still handling imagination and ideas when immersed into creative solutions.

Absolute handling for graphical softwares such as Adobe and Affinity Suites, plus a post-graduation degree in 3D computer graphics, this being also a personal passion of mine.

Online and offline design knowledge and great experience.

Fluent English and good proficiency on other languages.

I am utterly most excited about the opportunity to work for Swatch and to make history within the company.

Thank you for considering my application with great attention.
